

Quality Management

Company Glazura s.r.o. has a vision to achieve a worldwide leader in every markets and sectors where it operates through the top level in innovation. Our mission is to provoke changes, create new solutions and future trends that provide our customers with the best competitive advantages and maximum added value.

We are proud of long-term cooperation with customers and suppliers. We pay attention to the high quality of comprehensive solutions for our clients. It embraces quality of product, flexible and professional service in the form of development, specialised consulting, technical support and as well design.

The quality management system according to ČSN EN ISO 9001:2016 is the ability to maintain and further develop a company's business activities and its economic prosperity. The company's management is therefore committed to permanent quality maintenance and continuous improvement of its management system, protection of health and safety of workers, as well as environmental protection and efficient energy management.

Dobříň, 7.1.2026

Andrij Parsehov .....

